Goldberg Talk Set For Global Strategy Parley

NEWPORT—Global strategy discussions opening Monday at the U.S. Naval War College will include an address on Wednesday by Arthur J. Goldberg, Secretary of Labor.

His topic will be "The United States Business and Labor in National Strategy."

Other scheduled speakers include McGeorge Bundy, special assistant to the President for national security affairs; Nicholas de B. Katzenbach, deputy U.S. attorney general; Lyman Kirkpatrick, executive director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Adm. George W. Anderson Jr., chief of naval operations. Vice Adm. Bernard L. Austin, war college president, will welcome the guests.

Approximately 750 persons, including civilians and retired naval officers, will participate in the 14th annual discussions. Three ships will be used to house the guests at Destroyer Pier 2.
